Petersbourg, December 8.

SAturday laſt the greateſt Part of the Guard on Count Lowenwolde, Grand Marſhal, was taken off, and only ſix Grenadiers left; the Seals on his Effects were alſo taken off, and his Keys returned him. Major General Albreit has been diſmiſſed from the Prebrozenski Guards, of which he was Major, and Major General Tettau from the Cadets which he commanded. The Prince of Holſtein, who was Major General in this Service, and had Leave to go to Konigsberg laſt Year, is returned ſince the late Change, and has been made a Lieutenant General. Prince Galitzin, the Felt Marſhal's Son by his firſt Wife, who had formerly been employed in Courland, and was afterwards ſent away to Aſtracan in Diſgrace, returned laſt Week from thence, having been ſent for back by the late Regent, and was graciouſly received by her preſent Majeſty. M. Czirkaſſoff, who was diſgraced at the beginning of the late Reign, having been alſo reſtored to favour by the late Regent, arrived here ſome Weeks ago: He was formerly private Cabinet Secretary to Peter the Firſt, and diſpatched Buſineſs immediately under that Prince's Eye, and often unknown to any of his Miniſters. Her preſent Majeſty has replaced him in the ſame Quality about her own Perſon. An Order has been publiſhed by Beat of Drum, for all thoſe who had any Effects belonging to the Felt Marſhal Munich, or his Son, Counts Oſterman and Golofkin, or Preſident Mengden, ſhould immediately declare them.

Dreſden, Dec. 31, N. S. The Elector of Bavaria arrived here incognito the 29th at Night, about Eight o' Clock, and purſued his Journey to Munich at Five Yeſterday Morning: He lay at Baron Wetzel's, but went privately to Court, where he ſaw only their Poliſh Majeſties, the Royal Family, and Count Bruhl the Miniſter.

Dreſden, Jan. 3, N. S. M. Bunau, his Poliſh Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of Bavaria, is arrived here, and has Leave to ſtay till that Elector goes to Manheim, about the 15th, in order to aſſiſt at the Marriages between the eldeſt Princeſs of Sultzbach, and Prince Clement, Son to the late Duke Ferdinand of Bavaria; and the ſecond Princeſs of Sultzbach to his own Couſin German the Electoral Prince of the ſame Name. Feldt Marſhal Schmettau had an Audience of his Poliſh Majeſty as he went by here the 31ſt paſt on his Return to Berlin from Prague. It is impoſſible to expreſs the Calamities of Bohemia and Upper Sileſia, which has rendred the Boors ſo deſperate, that a conſiderable Number of them, as is aſſured, are roſe up in Arms. Some report that there are other Inſurrections of the ſame Nature both in Bohemia and Moravia, in Favour of the Queen of Hungary.

Berlin, Jan. 2, N. S. 'Tis rumoured here, that there has happened ſomething in Bohemia to the Diſadvantage of the Allies, but as yet we have no certain Accounts. M. Schwerin is in Poſſeſſion of Olmutz, which the Auſtrian Garriſon abandoned upon his Approach.

Hambourg, Jan. 5. The new Empreſs has ſent M. Korff, an Officer of her Guards, with the
